In this thrill-packed actioner, small-town diner owner, Tom Stall (Viggo Mortensen, The Lord of the Rings trilogy) finds himself a local hero after he successfully takes down two thugs during an attempted robbery. But his sudden celebrity draws unwanted attention from the outside world, including mobsters Carl Fogarty (Academy Award nominee Ed Harris, A Beautiful Mind) and Richie Cusecii (Academy Award winner William Hurt, Kiss of the Spider Woman), who insist that Tom is intricately tied to their past. Fogarty begins stalking Tom's wife (Marla Boto, The Cooler) and children, resulting in a deadly standoff in which Tom must protect his family from what is either a case of mistaken identity or a violent past that's finally caught up with him.

SPECIAL FEATURES
Director David Cronenberg Commentary
Three Riveting Featurettes:
"Too Commercial for Cannes"
"The Unmaking of Scene 44"
Deleted Scene & More!